present book emphasises the man more than the art of preaching, and spiritual preparation more than sermon preparation. This is what is so encouraging! For if we are intimidated by the lack of a natural gift we may be thrilled at the prospect of having spiritual grace, which alone makes preaching preaching. I can testify that Dr. Lloyd-Jones ...

We have all heard the saying, "Practice what you preach," meaning that we should practice in accordance with what we tell others. But brother Brownlow said exactly what he meant. He was a great preacher. He was saying that we should "preach" what we "practice," meaning that if we practice something, we should not be ashamed to ...
