For coherence theories in general, truth requires a proper fit of elements within a whole system. Very often, though, coherence is taken to imply something more than simple logical consistency; often there is a demand that the propositions in a coherent system lend mutual inferential support to each other.

In philosophy, universality is the idea that universal facts exist and can be progressively discovered, as opposed to relativism. In certain theologies, universalism is the quality ascribed to an entity whose existence is consistent throughout the universe, whose being is independent of and unconstrained by the events and conditions that compose the universe, such as entropy and physical locality.

Tip Toe Through the TULIP. The doctrines of grace are the best biblical doctrines you will ever come to know or embrace " Jesus Christ's Gospel is all of grace. These doctrines speak of God's infinite love and mercy to His people. It is here that God alone draws the sinner in, changes their heart, and gives them new life as a new creature "in the Beloved," who is Jesus Christ (See ...
